

Vera Wei

Homework 6A: High-Fi Mockup

For my high-fidelity mockup, I paid more attention to the typographical hierarchy and colors. For example, the font size is larger and the font weight is heavier for item name and price, because they are important pieces of information that help users distinguish between items. In addition, when users hover over interactive elements on the page, they are accentuated by a yellow color to give users feedback on the success of their actions.

